MyOwnDev.fr

LEGAL NOTICE — Publication draft

Version of 11 October 2026

1. Website publisher

The website https://myowndev.fr is a personal, non-professional website. It presents software development projects and may offer free software and documents for download. Contact: contact@myowndev.fr. Under Article 1-1, II, of French Law No. 2004-575 of 21 June 2004, the non-professional publisher chooses not to disclose their identity publicly. Their identifying information must have been provided to the hosting provider.

2. Hosting provider

The website is hosted by IONOS SARL, 7 place de la Gare, 57200 Sarreguemines, France. Telephone: +33 (0)9 70 80 89 11. Website: www.ionos.fr.

3. Intellectual property

Unless otherwise stated, original texts, graphic creations and software presented on MyOwnDev.fr are protected by applicable intellectual property laws. Third-party materials remain the property of their respective owners. The terms governing the use, copying and redistribution of each software product are specified, where applicable, in its licence or documentation.

4. Information and downloads

The publisher endeavours to keep the website information up to date and to provide working files. However, errors or interruptions may occur. Users should check software compatibility with their systems and make appropriate backups before installation. Nothing in this section limits mandatory statutory rights or guarantees.

5. Personal data and contact

When visitors contact MyOwnDev.fr by email, the information they provide is used to read and reply to their messages and to follow up on their requests. It is not intended for sale. Visitors may request information about the processing of their personal data and exercise their applicable rights by writing to contact@myowndev.fr. This notice must be expanded if the website introduces forms, analytics, donation services or other processing activities.

6. Cookies and third-party services

Any use of cookies, trackers or third-party services must be described according to how the website actually operates. Trackers requiring consent must not be activated until such consent has been obtained, in accordance with applicable rules.

7. Changes to the website

This notice may be updated if the activity becomes professional, the website features change or the hosting provider’s contact details change. Before publication, verify: identifying information supplied to IONOS; the hosting provider’s contractual contact details; actual cookies and personal data processing; and software licences.
